
Enterprise Survey for Labour Statistics in Ukraine

Natalya Usyk
Chief Expert-Economist
Labour Payment Statistics Unit
Labour Statistics Department

Enterprise Survey for Labour Statistics (ESLS) in Ukraine

- Monthly and quarterly survey
- Survey covers:
 - Enterprises with a number of employees 10+
 - Enterprises of all activities, excluding sections P “Activity of Households” and Q “Activity of ex-territorial organisations” (under NACE-2005)
- Information received:
 - Main figures are received with results of survey:
 - Number of employees
 - Volume and structure of salary fund and working time fund
 - Staff movement (number of hired employees and number of dismisses employees)
 - Allocation of employees by amounts of salary
 - Status of collective and contractual regulation
 - Index of real salary to determine the purchase power of salary and level of real life of acting population

Enterprise Survey for Labour Statistics in Ukraine

ESLS Plan:

- November:
 - Generating total population based on business register at national level.
 - December:
 - Selecting the units with number of employees 50+ and units with number of employees 10-49.
 - January:
 - Receiving by regional statistics offices the population of units to conduct ESLS; information letters to respondents concerning their participation in survey.
 - February:
 - Starting the collection of monthly information from January data.
-

Enterprise Survey for Labour Statistics in Ukraine

ESLS Plan:

Up to 7-th date of the reporting month:

- Submitting by respondents the questionnaires to regional statistics offices

From 7-th till 14-th date of the reporting month:

- Entering the reports into database, analyzing and controlling the received information at regional level, submitting the data to the national level

From 14-th till 22-d date of the reporting month:

- Receiving the databases from regional statistics offices, consolidating and aggregating the information, analyzing and controlling, calculating the weight system

From 22-d till 26-th date of the reporting month:

- Calculating the reliability indicators of the received estimates, preparing and publishing the information in the form of express issues at national level
-

Enterprise Survey for Labour Statistics in Ukraine

ESLS Plan:

■ February 2012:

- Receiving the information for January 2012 (monthly data)

■ April 2012:

- Receiving the information for I quarter 2012 (quarterly data)

■ January 2012:

- Receiving the information for December 2012 (monthly data)

■ February 2013:

- Receiving the information for 2012 (annual data)
-

Publishing ESLS Information

■ Monthly editions:

- ❑ Express edition for number of employees, working time and labour payment (on 26-th day after the reporting period)
- ❑ Economic report (on 46-th day after the reporting period)

■ Quarterly editions:

- ❑ Express editions for staff movement and allocation of employees by amount of salary (on 48-th day after the reporting period)
- ❑ Statistical bulletin (on ____ after the reporting period)
- ❑ Economic report “Salary and Status of its Payment” (twice a year)

■ Annual editions:

- ❑ Collection “Labour of Ukraine”
- ❑ Statistical Year-Book of Ukraine
- ❑ Collection “Regions of Ukraine”
- ❑ Publication of certain indicators in sectoral collections

Publishing of ESLS Information

- Main breakdowns of information delivery:
 - By economic and industrial activities (under NACE)
 - By regions of Ukraine
 - By organisation and legal forms of economy
 - By sex
-

Methodological Provisions and Tools to Conduct ESLS

- Employee Number Statistics Instruction;
- Salary Statistics Instruction;
- Instruction how to complete the questionnaire (monthly and quarterly);
- Methodology of calculation of indices of real salary;
- Methodology of generating the sampling to conduct current enterprise surveys in terms of labour statistics;
- Methodology of evaluation of indicators on the results of current enterprise surveys in terms of labour statistics.

Enterprise Survey for Labour Statistics in Ukraine

- To survey enterprises for labour statistics in 2011 50380 reporting units were selected; it is about 11% of the total population.
- 48719 enterprises or 96,7% selected enterprises took part in survey. It means that percentage of non-responses was less than 4%.
- 40 466 units (80,3%) have been totally surveyed and 9914 units (19,7%) have been surveyed on a sampling basis.
- The received estimates of main indicators have high level of reliability for majority of economic activities and for all regions

Thanks for your attention!
